

OUR STORY

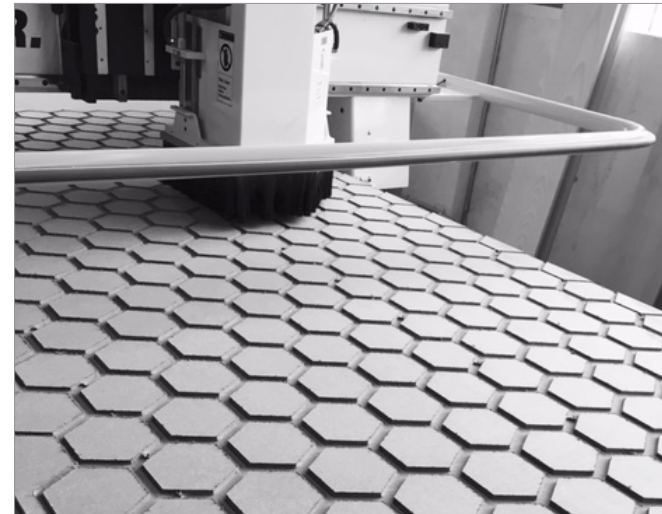

DESIRON debuted twenty years ago with three metal tables at a flea market on the Upper West Side of Manhattan. At the time, founder Frank Carfaro was an Analyst at Dun & Bradstreet, moonlighting as a furniture designer on the side. When his pieces sold out three weeks in a row, he started taking custom orders, and a business was born. Frank quit his job later that year, and rented a small storefront on 22nd Street that became the first DESIRON shop.

Flash forward two decades and DESIRON has grown into a premiere American maker of hand-crafted custom furniture, with a 4,000 square-foot showroom in the New York Design Center. The collection is made in the company's own solar-powered factory, using the finest, sustainable FSC hardwoods, and premium recycled metals. DESIRON partners and collaborates with like-minded creative makers including Roll & Hill and Cerno lighting, Calico wallpaper, and Siemon & Salazar glassworks.

Clients include MoMA, Laura Mercier, American Express, the Setai Group, Four Seasons, W Hotels, Saks Fifth Avenue, Neiman Marcus, and Mercedes-Benz Fashion Week.

DESIRON products are regularly featured in publications including The New York Times, Elle Decor, Architectural Digest, Dwell, and House Beautiful, as well as in numerous television and film productions.

OUR FACTORY

The DESIRON collection is hand-crafted in a 30,000 square-foot, solar-powered factory, just an hour outside the city in Kenilworth, New Jersey. We employ master woodworkers, metal fabricators, professional finishers and expert upholsterers, ensuring that every product we produce is of the highest quality and meets our exacting standards.

OUR SHOWROOM

The DESIRON showroom is a 4,000 square-foot space located in the New York Design Center. Our highly celebrated luxury furniture collection is showcased here where designers and their clients have the opportunity to enjoy the beautiful displays. Our company focuses on bringing a modern simplicity to your homes with hand-crafted and customizable furnishings fit for any space.
